Navios Maritime Holdings Inc. to Delist and Deregister its Series G and Series H American Depositary Shares from the New York Stock Exchange

January 19, 2024

GRAND CAYMAN, Cayman Islands, Jan. 19, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Navios Maritime Holdings Inc. (the "Company") announced today that its board of directors (the "Board") has approved the delisting of the Company's (i) American Depositary Shares each representing 1/100th of a share of the Company's 8.75% Series G Cumulative Redeemable Perpetual Preferred Stock, $0.0001 par value per share (the "Series G ADSs") and (ii) American Depositary Shares each representing 1/100th of a share of the Company's 8.625% Series H Cumulative Redeemable Perpetual Preferred Stock, $0.0001 par value per share (the "Series H ADSs" and, together with the Series G ADSs, the "ADSs") and the preferred stock underlying the ADSs from the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") and deregistration thereof with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The Company believes that the costs associated with continuing the listing and registration of its ADSs exceed the benefits received by the Company and its decision to delist and deregister the ADSs will better enable it to maximize value for stakeholders. The Company also gave notice to the NYSE today of its intent to voluntarily delist the ADSs and underlying preferred stock and to withdraw the registration of the ADSs and underlying preferred stock with the SEC. The Series G ADSs are currently listed on the NYSE under the symbol "NM-PG." The Series H ADSs are currently listed on the NYSE under the symbol "NM-PH."

The Company intends to file with the SEC a Form 25 Notification of Removal from Listing on or about January 29, 2024 to delist the ADSs from listing on the NYSE and deregister the ADSs under Section 12(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). It is expected that the last day of trading of the ADSs on the NYSE will be on or about February 8, 2024 and that the Company's ADSs will be removed from listing on the NYSE at the opening of business on or about February 9, 2024. In connection with the foregoing, the Company also intends to file a Form 15 with the SEC to suspend the Company's reporting obligations under the Exchange Act.

The Board's decision was made after careful consideration of the advantages and disadvantages of continuing listing and registration and based on a review of several factors, including preserving cash by eliminating the legal, audit and other costs associated with maintaining the Company's listing and remaining an SEC reporting company under the Exchange Act and preparing and filing periodic reports with the SEC and the limited trading volume of the ADSs.

The Company has not arranged for listing or registration of the ADSs on another national securities exchange or for quotation of the ADSs in a quotation medium.
